Remember:

In your course, activities have a due date. If the time runs out and you didn't click "Submit," don't worry — the platform automatically submits your answers for you. That's what we call <Autosubmit>.

How does it work?

When you have an assigned activity:

- There is a deadline indicating how much time you have to complete/submit it.
- If time runs out and you didn't click "Submit," the platform will automatically send the information for the activities you worked on.

Why is it useful?

- It prevents you from losing the progress you made.
- It ensures the teacher receives your answers, even if you didn't submit them manually.

Example:

You have 4 assigned activities. You complete only 1 and score 88% on it.

You don't complete the remaining 3.

The platform will show a dash (-) in the score of those activities, which counts as zero (0). Your final average will be 22%, because: 88 + 0 + 0 + 0 = 88; $88 \div 4 = 22\%$.

Important:

- Only what you managed to answer will be submitted.
- No changes can be made after autosubmit.
- If the internet connection is lost while performing the activity, the auto-submit feature will send the responses completed up to the point of disconnection.

Use the pagination bar it allows you to navigate through different pages by clicking on the page numbers or the Next and Previous buttons.
